

Position: Restaurant Manager

Position Reports to: Senior management & Directors

We are looking for someone passionate about food and drink business with a proven track record in the industry. The candidate should be familiar with the basic precepts of dim sum and the Cantonese dining styles. The successful candidate will be a confident charming character, not afraid to go the extra mile, and will be an organised, motivated, self-starter with high goals and expectations able to take challenges and pressures in their stride.

Job Requirements

To ensure the restaurant and bar operates efficiently and profitably whilst maintaining Yang Sing Limited's ethos, reputation and heritage and optimising profits in every area of the business.

To be responsible for overseeing daily operations including: overseeing recruitment, development and performance of employees.

To oversee ordering of stock and inventory, ensuring a cost effective business and ensuring every guest is happy with their experience at Yang Sing.

To help drive the business forward, helping to deliver and develop new projects.

Additional information

- Rate of pay – negotiable, dependent upon experience.
- Hours expected – 45-50 hours per week mixed office and operations in lines with the need of the business.
- Annual bonus.
- Other benefits include tronc share, commission, 4 weeks paid holiday per year, pension.

Get in touch

If you'd like to express your interest in the role, please forward your cv to info@yang-sing.com

